In the graveyard, softly sleeping.
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one I loved so dearly,
In his lonely, silent grave. Oh, darling, could you speak to me, And could you live again,
My aching heart would then be healed—
But this wish is in vain.

That iles within my heart concealed You are not forgotten, dearest William, Nor will you ever be; As long as life and memory last I will remember thee. BY HIS LOVING WIFE, MAMIE A. CATON

Papa is gone, but not forgotten, Never will his memory fade Around his lone and silent grave BY HIS LITTLE SONS. JAMES AND JOSEPH CATON. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear father, WILLIAM M. CATON, whose precious life was so suddenly taken one year
